

STAFF TRACKING

Savance EIOBoard Staff Tracking is a simple and easy-to-use software application that allows employees to sign in and out of the office as they come and go. The system updates instantly and the entire office can view who's in and who's out. Eliminate wall-mounted magnetic whiteboards and paper sign-in sheets, as well as needless emails and phone calls to find someone.

If you've ever wasted time trying to track down a coworker or employee, Savance can help. Using EIOBoard Staff Tracking, you can quickly see whether someone is in the office without leaving your desk or picking up the phone.

Staff Tracking is an easy-to-use electronic in/out board solution for all your staff tracking needs. Use it for real-time tracking of employee work statuses, attendance, location, and more.

Employees can alert supervisors and coworkers of their current in-or-out of office status, using a computer, a touch screen kiosk, an Internet browser, Microsoft Outlook, or a smart phone, as well as leave comments such as when they will be back, or whom to contact while they are gone.

By providing easy options for status updates, Staff Tracking helps your business achieve:

- Increased productivity;
- Improved communication;
- Better staff accountability;
- Increased security measures;

Optional integration with e.g. your payroll system and EIOBoard Emergency Mustering.

CITY OF WHEAT RIDGE, CO

“ We needed to get away from the magnetic board, and EIOBoard is a stable, and mature product.

Steve Young

JUDSON INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

“ It stops that question, 'Where is this person?' It helps to make that decision about how to follow up. It really enhances communication throughout our organization.
